Assumption University
Public Relations Department
Press Clipping

Date : July 2, 2012
Media Title : Air Sea Guide Magazine
Page : No.10

THAI

THAI FLIGHT TRAINING AND MOU SIGNING CEREMONY WITH LEADING INSTITUTIONS

Thai Airways International Public Company Limited (THAI) launches TFT: THAI Flight Training Co., Ltd. as well as MOU signing ceremony between TFT and leading academic institutions in aviation, aiming to make Thailand an aviation training center in South East Asia.

Mr. Piyasvasti Amranand, President of THAI, said that TFT or THAI Flight Training Co., Ltd. is ready to develop the personnel in Aviation by having a strong coordination with leading Thai institutions. On this occasion, Captain Chuchart Jantabutara, Managing Director of TFT, signed the MOU with seven leading institutions–Civil Aviation Training Center (CATC), International Aviation College, Nakhon-Phanom University (IAC NPU), Bangkok Aviation Center (BAC), Kasem Bundit University, Assumption University, Sripatum University, and Bangkok University.

The MOU signing aims to establish courses for those interested in studying in the field of aviation, leading to more aviation personnel according to the government's policy. More information on career opportunities in aviation are available at the booths.

Captain Chuchart Jantabutara, Managing Director of TFT, said that TFT has been offering aviation courses such as pilot training, flight attendant training and has supplied aviation personnel to Thai Airways International and other airlines for a while already. This launch will boost the TFT even further to train and develop even more personnel in the aviation area.

The cooperation between TFT and the leading institutions will enhance Thailand as the aviation training center in South East Asia.