

Assumption University, History

AU was initially originated from Assumption Commercial College in 1969 as an autonomous higher education institution under the name of Assumption School of Business. In 1972, with the approval of the Ministry of Education, it was officially established as Assumption Business Administration College or ABAC. In May 1975, it was accredited by the Ministry of University Affairs. In 1990, it was granted new status as Assumption University by the Ministry of University Affairs. The university is a not-for-profit institution administered by the Brothers of St. Gabriel, a worldwide Catholic religious order founded in France in 1705 by St. Louis Marie de Montfort. The congregation has been operating many educational institutions in Thailand since 1901.
