

Makkha Ammarin Bridge

The name of the bridge in Thai means “the path of angels”. It is so named to bless people who cross this bridge. ²The high reliefs on the bridge rails depict the angel of light with radiating rays around an angel's face. They bear a resemblance to Medusa so the bridge is dubbed “Versace Bridge” by the students. It crosses over the sprawling pond and near the entrance, but it serves as the exit is from the university.
