

Dr. Patricia Arttachariya

St. Martin de Tours Award for Excellence in Performance (Second Class)

Citation:

Dr. Patricia Arttachariya joined the teaching profession in June 1978 and she is therefore a doyenne of the Assumption University faculty corps. Although at the prime of her career, at the height of her responsibilities and in spite of numerous duties she managed to go back to school and secure a Ph.D. in Industrial and Business Studies from University of Warwick, in 1997 demonstrating that one can still be sprightly and intellectually active provided there is the indomitable will and strength of purpose.

A few of the special assignments allocated to Dr. Patricia and noteworthy contributions made by her during recent years are as follows.

1. Publication of the Journal of Management as its Managing Editor
2. Preparation of the MBA Handbook 2004 for issue to new graduate students
3. Completion of the Handbook of Thesis Writing, a standard reference for MBA students
4. Frequent nomination as keynote speaker at seminars and symposia on topics such as (a) Marketing Environment and Competitive Pressures, (b) Interpersonal Skills, Leadership and Teamwork, (c) Service Quality Management, etc.
5. New positions recently acquired
 - a) Chairperson, MBA Thesis Committee
 - b) Thesis Supervisor, University of South Australia

For the highly satisfactory services rendered and outstanding contributions, the administrators are pleased to confer the St. Martin de Tours Award for Excellence in Performance (Second Class) on Dr. Patricia Arttachariya in the Christmas Honours announced on December 24, 2005.
