

ABSTRACT

I love to watch movies. Different movies give different emotions, some give fun some give a lesson. For bringing an inspiration to someone who's broken, I want to make a movie; a movie that can make the audience move on from a problem such I have.

At the time I did this thesis, I faced with a lot of problems. One of them was a broken heart. I am fought with my girlfriend, then, finally we broke our relationship. Most students who faced a big problem between love and writing a thesis and can't go on either way. Most of them failed their thesis. For me, my heart can be broke but my life can't. I designed to keep it with me, in my film.

In this film, I will tell a story about taking care, getting to know how much someone means to you until you lose them. After that, I will tell about the way to move on, then back to be with the ones who will always be with you; "Family"
