

Abstract

The aim of this study is to explore ideas from teachers regarding teaching methods. The research sample consisted of seven English teachers who taught in grade 10-12, and 27 volunteers students form grade 10. It was conducted using the workshop and AI interview questions. The quantitative data were used. Method of Teaching English model was from English teachers and developed by the researcher and implemented to define how the methods work in teaching. After piloting with controlled group (students volunteer), the feedback of the students enjoyed with teaching model and have inspiration to learn English.

Keywords: Organization Development, Method of Teaching English , Appreciative Inquiry