

ABSTRACT

This System Development Project provides the analysis, design and Implementation of a Sales and Marketing Information System of a trading company .

The system provides the Customer , Order Processing, Verify, Bill Process, Sales Analysis Report including File maintenance Menu. This system is proposed to reinforce the existing system of the company. It will also help save cost, time-consuming including productivity of the operations.