

ABSTRACT

This report is a component of a project covering study in adjusting a production process system. An understanding of the nature of production process from this consumer product plant is essential. This project comprises of data collection on the method of analysis of system. DataFlowDiagrams, preparation of Data Dictionary, and documentation of the system are presented. The study will in turn be utilized in connection with various aspects of other divisions in the preparation of integrated corporate database design and system implementation of the consumer product plant.

