ABSTRACT

This report presents the process of doing domain name registration online service and how to become resellers. This project will present market target, marketing strategy, SWOT analysis, competitor analysis, web design and web development. In web development process will show how database work and analyze of each table will be included. The financial analysis is show the breakeven, investing cost and potential income also.

The summarization of this project would be online web registration for reseller who would like to purchase a volume of domain name in a value of money