ASSUMPTION UNIVERSITY

Historical Background

Assumption University originated from Assumption Commercial College in 1969 as an autonomous higher education institution under the name of Assumption School of Business. In 1972, with the approval of the Ministry of Education, it was officially established as Assumption Business Administration College or ABAC. In May 1975, it was accredited by the Ministry of University Affairs. In 1990, it was granted new status as "Assumption University" by the Ministry of University Affairs.

The University is a non-profit institution administered by the Brothers of St. Gabriel, a worldwide Catholic religious order, founded in France in 1705 by St. Louis Marie De Montfort, devoted to education and philanthropic activities. The congregation has been operating many educational institutions in Thailand since 1901.

The University is an international community of scholars, enlivened by Christian inspiration, engaged in the pursuit of truth and knowledge, serving the human society, especially through the creative use of interdisciplinary approaches and cybertechnology.

It has always been my dream to build a Cathedral of Learning and to create in and around it an atmosphere that is healthy and refreshing to the active mind, intellectually stimulating and spiritually fostering and enriching; in other words, an atmosphere conducive to learning and becoming..... a complete man/woman, a new man/woman for a new millennium — someone imbued with a new humanism.

Fr. Wartin

Omnipotent and omniscient God, do bestow on the graduates, and all the members of AU community: -

The gift of Wisdom to enable them to see things from the perspective of the supreme Truth.

The gift of Understanding to apprehend the ultimate Truth with greater insight as well as their relationship to the Absolute and their role in the world.

The gift of Counsel to enable them to judge rightly what they should do in time of trouble and trial.

The gift of Fortitude that suppresses excessive fear and curbs recklessness.

The gift of Knowledge to swiftly discern between the subtle wiles of the devil and the inspirations of God.

The gift of Piety, the instinctive love for God, to render to him the worship and service he deserves.

The gift of the Fear of the Lord, the beginning of wisdom, a profound respect for the supreme Truth, to help protect them from sin through the fear of offending the Absolute.

(We ask all this through Christ our Lord. Amen)

Vice President for Academic Affairs

Education is the most effective means to liberate Man from ignorance and poverty.

The fundamental aim of education is to develop and integrate Man's physical, intellectual, emotional and moral faculties
to their fullest potential without extinguishing
the creative spark in him. This integration processed through the proper exercise of personal freedom will ultimately lead to the formation of a complete Man, bearing in mind that Man's existence is an unending process of completion and learning.

A Man thus formed is capable of becoming responsible to himself and to the society in which he lives.

Address by the President - Rector Magnificus
Of Assumption University of Thailand
at the 47th Commencement Exercises
Bangkok International Trade and Economic Centre on Saturday, January 18, 2020

Chairman of the University Council
President Emeritus
Campus Minister
Administrators and Members of AU Community
Honored Guests
Families, Friends and Acquaintances of the Graduates, and
Dear AU Graduates, Class XLVII

May I take this opportunity to acknowledge the presence of those who are present at this graduation ceremony.

1. We have the former chairman of the University Council, Rev. Bro. Surasit Sukchai and Rev. Bro. Dechachai Sripicharn, The Present Provincial Superior cum chairman of the University Council.
2. With us today, Rev. Bro. Pratip Martin Komolmas, The President Emeritus.
3. Other members of AU family, who never fail to come. They are the administrators, faculty, staff and AUSO members including present students.
4. Your senior members, the representatives from the AU Alumni Association, are also here today.
5. Outside the hall, we are aware of the presence of the members of your families, relatives, peers and associates who join us as a part of AU community waiting to congratulate you, to share your joy and happiness, to surprise you with gifts and join you in the celebration.

We are here today to honor you at this momentous occasion, the significant milestone in your life.

On behalf of the University and on your behalf, graduates, may I thank one and all for their good hearts. They have sacrificed their life and time for you in different capacities. With all their smiles and good wishes, they help fill this hall with the warmth of their tender love and care for you. So thank you!

Dear Graduates:

The only one word I can say now is “Congratulations!” you have made it. This is the moment of joy and excitement because you have achieved a certain height in academic life. From now on, it is your time to shine.

As you had learned, life is a journey. Your graduation is just the end of one cycle in life, at the same time it is the beginning of another cycle. Before, you undertake a journey, you are advised to sit down and plan well for the journey.

Graduation is a time to bid goodbye to the University, to your teachers, to long-time friends, to good times and bad times you have known, a time for looking on lesson learned, adventures shared, good memories filled with special meaning.

First, you have to look behind you, all your memories. You are not going to rejoice on good things and lament on sad experiences. You look into your past with special meaning. You cannot redo the past but you consider them as your teachers and take them as lessons learned.

Second, you have to look around you. The members of your families, your relatives, friends and acquaintances, they are the world to you. They support you, they are always with you to encourage you in difficult times, they share with you love, care and laughter. They contribute to your life, they are a part of you. Remain grateful to them and keep them in your heart always.

Remember that relationship is one of the most essential things in life. Life itself is a network of relationships with all: Your near and dear ones, friends and associates. Your success in life depends largely on how you redefine your relationships with those who interact with you. You must try to find a model for yourselves – a model that would help you put relationships in perspective. Learn to transform such relationships to your advantage and raise standards.

On the natural plane, there are three levels of relationship, namely one above you, another with your peers, and one with those under you. Do not give importance only to those above you. Relationships with people at the three levels are all important to you. Building up good relationship at any level will make your life better.

Third, you have to look within you. There is a saying that goes: “The one person who will never abandon you is “You.” You are the key and mainstay of your life. You have your capabilities and potentials with all their strengths and weaknesses. Keep yourself strong and try to develop your potentials so that when everyone abandons you, you can rely on yourself. Learn how to search for the treasures within, taking value and sense of worth from inside you. Everything you need is within you.

Fourth, look before you. You have to look forward and try to envision your life. Some might say that it is difficult to predict what will happen in the future. Far future, yes it’s difficult to predict. You can look into your immediate future. “A man without vision, will perish,” says the Proverb. You can have your dreams, set measurable goals and make use of the resources you have to work towards the goals you set.

On campus, you had learned how to think, to obtain knowledge in a special area to earn your living. You had been exposed to various forms of studies to learn skills necessary to live and survive in the 21st century. In particular, you had been taught directly or indirectly to form your character. AU has offered you to master all those knowledge and skills. You were free to embrace them or ignore them depending on your attitudes towards them. College life is meant to form you as a person and at the bachelor’s level, you must have a large and strong foundation so that you can go higher later in life depending on the needs of the time and place.

At this point in time, you may find out that you did not put up your best in the past. Something may still be lacking and that is natural with human beings. Do not regret and mourn over it. Instead, just follow the old adage, “Better late than never,” and start setting new goals to meet what you need in life.

To get a degree does not guarantee that you will live a happy life ever after. It will not get you a job or directly increase your earnings simply because you have that degree. In the end, it is about the attributes and skills you bring to your workplace, and not about the paper you hold. It’s valuable for the experiences you have, and the accomplishments you achieved while studying. The connection between your educations and your aspirations is essential.

More careers will be automated. People will have to be curious, innovative, and resilient. In today's world, creativity is one of the most important leadership skills. Anyhow, "we should not compete with artificial intelligence but instead focus on developing Unique Human Intelligence," Jack Ma said. You were taught to be a learning person equipping yourself with the knowledge that will assist you to cope with changes that affect your life. You must consistently cultivate global competency to meet the challenges of tomorrows. If you continue to do the things as you did yesterday, you'll rob yourself of tomorrow.

My recommendations for you at this time are as follows:

1. Our thoughts.

Our life is what our thoughts make it. A man will find that as he alters his thoughts towards things and other people, things and other people will alter towards him.

I would recommend that you invest a minimum of ten minutes a day to read positive and inspirational thoughts. Cancel negative thoughts. Keep away from being gossip mongers, avoid the company of pessimists and surround yourself with positive minded people.

2. Emotional Mastery.

Life without emotions is like food without spices. Therefore, emotion is the flavor of life. Nevertheless, unbridled emotions of a certain kind will lead us to disaster. It is necessary to train oneself daily for emotional mastery.

Mastery means acknowledging the reality of emotions and feelings and giving them the due place they deserve. Ability to stay cool under all circumstances gives enormous power and energy to a person.

3. Self-Reflection.

We generally live to realize the fragility of life that depends on success, popularity and power. They are external factors over which we have only limited control. We are what the world gives us. In this success-oriented world, our lives become more and more dominated by superlatives – highest tower, the fastest runner, the longest bridge, etc.

We are full of our own opinions, ideas, and convictions that we have no space left to listen to others and learn from others. We can live creatively when we live it out detached from the results of our work. It is the awareness of our inner life without the disturbance from outside that we can discover that being is more important than having.

My recommendation for you is to get into your inner being and make self-reflection on your life and what you are facing especially in times of crisis.

Dear Graduates:

By this time, you must have learned that AU is celebrating its 50th anniversary (Golden Jubilee) starting from August 15, 2019 – to August 15, 2020.

We are aware of the challenges of the time. As AU is in the quest for Excellence, we must review our performance and our plans of action.

This celebration is an opportunity for us to reflect on the past in order to search for AU Future. May I invite all of you, AU alumni, and as part of AU family to participate in this search. Each one of you can help shape AU Future. The point of contact is on AU website.

I repeat once again what I already mentioned earlier. “Do not let the past haunt you and the future fill you with worries.” Even if you do not get any job now, expect for the best and be patient for the mother of expectation is patience.

AU is a Catholic university that bears Catholic character. Live on the spirit that AU has tried to instill in you.

Once again, I thank everyone who helps make this ceremony a memorable one for our graduates.

To you, graduates, Congratulations! The future is in your hand. Chart your own destiny and move forward with confidence. May God bless you always!

CLOSING PRAYER

Loving God, bless us as we gather here today to celebrate the accomplishments of these graduates. Thankful for the gifts you have bestowed upon them and the opportunity to share in their lives, we ask you to continue to guide and bless them.

May they be healthy, open-minded persons, enlivened by Christian values, engaged tirelessly in the pursuit of Truth and knowledge, characterized by personal integrity and creative thinking.

May they learn that life is a struggle, but through diligence and hard work, they can overcome all difficulties.

May they be professionally competent, willing to exercise responsible leadership for their own good and the good of humankind.

May they learn to be tolerant towards ways of being, thinking and acting which are different from theirs.

May they learn to respect all creation, and the uniqueness of each person.

May they be light to this world, so that their life radiate your message of compassion, hope, and joy, leading people towards the true source of all knowledge and life.

May they be the salt that prevents the rottenness of hatred and greed from expanding around them, bringing compassionate healing to anguished souls they encounter.

Teach them, Lord, that alone they are insignificant, but with the talents of others, they can build a new world where all can live as true brothers and sisters.

We ask all this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.
