

ABSTRACT

This project presents the implementation of computerized material purchasing system for a manufacturing company. This system will provide accurate and on-time information. Moreover, it can also solve various problems of documentation within the company.

This report is intended to show how the computerized system can increase efficiency in purchasing system for a manufacturing company instead of using the manual system in filing the documents.