

Mrs. Mika Tanasarnsanee

St. Martin's Award (Excellence in Teaching Award)

Citation:

Mrs. Mika spends many extra hours preparing her courses so that her students get added value out of them. She is challenging in her demands, but fair in her treatment of the students, especially in grading their work. She is creative in her approach and constantly updating her materials. She loves her profession, shows a strong sense of organization, and cooperates in doing extra tasks asked of her in the department in a most willing and pleasant manner.

There is no doubt that Mrs. Mika is leading her students to higher levels of knowledge and skill and that her professional and dedicated approach to teaching redounds to the honor and good reputation of the university.
