ASSUMPTION UNIVERSITY

Assumption University originated from Assumption Commercial College in 1969 as an autonomous higher education institution under the name of Assumption School of Business. In 1972, with the approval of the Ministry of Education, it was officially established as Assumption Business Administration College or ABAC. In May 1975, it was accredited by the Ministry of University Affairs. In 1990, it was granted new status as "Assumption University" by the Ministry of University Affairs.

The University is a non-profit institution administered by the Brothers of St. Gabriel, a worldwide Catholic religious order, founded in France in 1705 by St. Louis Marie De Montfort, devoted to education and philanthropic activities. The congregation has been operating many educational institutions in Thailand since 1901.

The University is an international community of scholars, enlivened by Christian inspiration, engaged in the pursuit of truth and knowledge, serving the human society, especially through the creative use of interdisciplinary approaches and cybertechnology.

It has always been my dream to build a Cathedral of Learning and to create in and around it an atmosphere that is healthy and refreshing to the active mind, intellectually stimulating and spiritually fostering and enriching; in other words, an atmosphere conducive to learning and becoming a complete man/woman, a new man/woman for a new millennium — someone imbued with a new humanism.

Fr. Martin

Vision

Assumption University envisions itself as:

- an international community of scholars,
- enlivened by Christian inspiration,
- engaged in the pursuit of Truth and Knowledge,
- serving human society, especially through the creative use of inter-disciplinary approaches and cybertechnology.

Assumption University envisions its graduates as:

- healthy and open-minded persons, characterized by personal integrity, an independent mind, and creative thinking,
- professionally competent, willing to exercise responsible leadership for economic progress in a just society,
- able to communicate effectively with people from other nations and to participate in glo-balization.

Philosophy

In loyalty to its Christian mission, Assumption University stands for

- the inculcation of respect for the three institutions of the Nation: Religion, Country, and King, and a democratic way of life;
- the belief that a man justifies himself and his existence by the nobility of his work;
- the commitment to be a light that leads men towards the true source of all knowledge and life.

Objectives & Policies

Assumption University exists for the main purpose of serving the nation by providing scientific and humanistic knowledge, particularly in the business education and management science through research and interdisciplinary approaches.

To this end it aims at forming intellectually competent graduates who

- are morally sound, committed to acting justly, and open to further growth
- appreciate freedom of expression, and are imbued with attitudes and ideologies through a carefully integrated curriculum of ethics, science, languages and business management;
- achieve academic excellence through hard work, critical thinking, and effective decision-making.

OPENING PRAYER: ASKING FOR THE SEVEN GIFTS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

Omnipotent and omniscient God, do bestow on the graduates, and all the members of AU community: -

The gift of Wisdom to enable them to see things from the perspective of the supreme Truth.

The gift of Understanding to apprehend the ultimate Truth with greater insight as well as their relationship to the Absolute and their role in the world.

The gift of Counsel to enable them to judge rightly what they should do in time of trouble and trial.

The gift of Fortitude that suppresses excessive fear and curbs recklessness.

The gift of Knowledge to swiftly discern between the subtle wiles of the devil and the inspirations of God.

The gift of Piety, the instinctive love for God, to render to him the worship and service he deserves.

The gift of the Fear of the Lord, the beginning of wisdom, a profound respect for the supreme Truth, to help protect them from sin through the fear of offending the Absolute.

(We ask all this through Christ our Lord. Amen)

Academic Report

Academic Year 2015

Chairman of the University Council

Rev.Bro. Rector Magnificus

Rev.Bro. Rector Emeritus

Faculty Members

Distinguished Guests and Graduates

I am privileged and honoured to present to you the report on the University's Academic Development for the academic year 2015.

Prior to presenting the report, allow me to congratulate all graduates for having successfully built crucial cornerstones of success for their future careers.

Your acquisition of knowledge, analytical skills, network creations via academic and extracurricular activities, and more importantly the sense of Labor Omnia Vincit - the fortitude and the determination to overcome obstacles, and the ethical values the University has imbued in you, have become your invaluable assets that will go a long way towards enhancing the growth of societies and the nation. As Abraham Maslow has put it "If the only tool you have is a hammer, you tend to see every problem as a nail".

The following are some of the major academic developments and accomplishments in 2015.

- The University 2014 – 2018, 5-year Strategic Plan has been implemented, thus it has become the quality driven factor that has enabled the University to have academic sustainable development.
- 5 Bachelor Degree programs, 3 Master's Degree programs, and 1 Doctoral Degree program were modified to be more competitive and to keep pace with fast-changing technology, and 3 programs were closed to give way to new program offerings that meet the changing needs of the job market, and 13 programs are in the process of modification.
- With the continuous utilization of effective research budget schemes, academic publications has increased by 67 percent from 215 in 2014 to 417 in 2015 academic year.
- An unwavering encouragement of the University for the faculties to commit to carrying out research and creative works has effectuated an increase in the number of faculties with academic titles. With 95 faculties with academic title in 2015, the University has the ratio of non-academic title and academic title faculties of 9 to 1.

The University is committed to the professional growth of its faculty members to promote intellectual advancement in their fields of specialization. In 2015, the University granted scholarships to faculty members to further their studies and supported various faculty development activities. Eleven scholarships were granted: 4 in Master's degree programs and 7 in Doctoral degree programs, 7 of which are in Thailand and 4 are overseas programs.

Thirteen faculty members who were granted scholarships have completed their studies and have been awarded degrees. Up to now, the University has granted 558 scholarships, 337 of which are Master's Degree and 206 are Doctoral Degree. At present, there are 892 full-time faculty members performing either or both academic and administrative duties, 647(72.53%) of whom are Thai nationals and 245 (27.46%) are foreign nationals representing 43 nationalities. Twenty five faculty members are Bachelor's degree holders, 531 (59.53%) are Master's degree holders and 336 (37.67%) are doctoral degree holders. Ninety five faculty members hold academic titles: 4 are professors, 23 are Associate Professors and 68 are Assistant Professors.

The revision of policies on research grant, paper presentation grant and paper public presentation grant as well as the external research fund management procedure to support faculty members in their academic works in 2013 by the Research and Academic Services Support Committee has hastened the rise in the research grants and paper presentation grants. Consequently, in 2015, 45 research grants and 105 paper presentation grants were given.

In the academic year 2015, the University had a total of 15,690 students. Of these, 14,591 were Bachelor's degree students, 927 were Master's degree students and 172 were Doctoral degree students.

To date, the University has conferred degrees to 43 classes with a total of 91,000 graduates. For the academic year 2015, 3,151 graduates will receive their degrees today. The number of graduates categorized according to their degrees and area of specialization are as follows.

Vice President for Academic Affairs

SINCE 1969

Education is the most effective means to liberate Man from ignorance and poverty.

The fundamental aim of education is to develop and integrate Man's physical, intellectual, emotional and moral faculties to their fullest potential without extinguishing the creative spark in him. This integration process through the proper exercise of personal freedom will ultimately lead to the formation of a complete Man, bearing in mind that Man's existence is an unending process of completion and learning.

A Man thus formed is capable of becoming responsible to himself and to the society in which he lives.

Pro. Martin

Address by the President - Rector Magnificus
Of Assumption University of Thailand
at the 44th Commencement Exercises
Queen Sirikit National Convention Center
Sunday, November 20, 2016

Chairman of the University Council
President Emeritus
Campus Minister
Members of AU Community
Honored Guests
Families and Friends of the Graduates, and
Dear AU Graduates of Class XLIV

All of us are here to witness and celebrate your success. Let me start from Rev. Bro. Surasit Sukchai, Chairman of the University Council and the Provincial Superior of the Montfort Brothers of St. Gabriel, Province of Thailand, Rev. Bro. Prathip Martin Komolmas, President Emeritus, the administrators, faculty and staff of the University including president of AU Alumni Association.

Outside this august assembly hall, your parents, members of your families, your relatives, friends and acquaintances are waiting to congratulate you on your memorable milestone of success in studies.

I would like to thank them all for not only being here today, but also they, in one way or the other, are a part of your success. As graduates, you have to thank them for what they have done to get where you are today.

My special thanks also go to the faculty and staff of the University who have arranged and prepared the graduation ceremony and helped make it a sacred and memorable one. I do not forget to include the band from Assumption College who adds flavor and life to this ceremony.

I love to see you in caps and gowns, symbolizing the embodiment of competency in knowledge and thinking skill, yet you should not be an illiterate graduate (Lacking what has been considered the basic level of literacy to function in a modern society).

Your graduation comes at the time when Thailand has been impacted by both internal and external challenges. Poor economy, caused by political unrests, hefty household debt, falling prices of farm produce, drought and flood conditions, shrinking private investment, slow budget disbursement by the government among others, has made life difficult for people in general. Coupled with slow growth in world economy and pressure from the European Community in terms of human trafficking, illegal labor and malpractices in fishing industry, Thailand needs a short-term fix and long-term reforms. Such situations will considerably impact your work-life as new graduates.

I am confident that you have prepared yourselves well to face any challenge in life. On the part of AU as a Catholic University, it has the virtue of its Catholic identity which is “first and foremost, a place of humanism” and it has to create the conditions of “an atmosphere of respect, trust and love in which the students are at the center of all activities.” Our main mission is to train our students in the familial spirit of humanity. In other words, it is an integral or holistic approach to education ? training individuals fully (Jarton, 2016, p.354).

One of the hallmarks of education at AU is the quality and excellence of teaching. The heart of AU is its Faculty, “The Professional Corps, the living fabric of AU.” AU education normally focuses on the individual, a person who feels unique, valued, respected and loved for who he is. Moreover, AU has its own identity, its ways of embracing and educating its students ? preparing them for the challenges the world will bring. You have to be aware that, life on campus and outside will be totally different. Graduation is a transition period from a college life to a new realm of life – a new job or a higher degree. You will witness and embrace the dynamism and vibrancy of a pluralistic society.

Advice abounds from people surrounding you both from inside and outside AU, yet I consider it important to give you some insights to reflect on which you can use later in life in case you need them.

First, continue your formation.

Formation is a process by which a person learns to sort specific experiences into general rules or classes. The formation incorporates ongoing experience, reflection and action. New experiences should shape your character and engrave new patterns as well. The ultimate aim of formation is to assist you to recognize excellence as the achievement of your full potential in the service of others.

Life is a journey – a journey to maturity and is composed of a series of acts of experience and discovery. As I mentioned earlier, the education you have received from AU is holistic in four main dimensions – physical, intellectual, emotional or social, and spiritual. You must continue the formation process for it is your core being and the true wealth of a person.

On the other hand, when we discuss about a whole-person education, we also speak of lifelong education. Consider the intellectual knowledge per se, “You are not going to get very far in life basing it only on what you already know. You are going to advance in life by what you will learn after you leave AU – utilizing AU as the base of knowledge and thinking skills. Other dimensions in life follow.

Education doesn't stop after you have graduated from college. It doesn't stop after you finish your master's degree or doctorate either. Charlie Munger says "Wisdom acquisition is a moral duty. It's not just something you do to advance in life." It's a moral duty because it's only through continuous learning that you can add to the vast knowledge of mankind. If we stop learning, progress in all areas stops as well.

Second, know what you truly want to become.

Some of you may want to go for higher studies, some opt to get the job right after your graduation. In whatever realm of life you may be in, you are moving towards the unknown. Be confident of your ability and uniqueness. Have the courage to follow your heart's desire, follow your passion.

Many don't have a clear picture of what they truly want. Too often, graduates rely on serendipity to lead them to the right job. Now it is time to consider all the infinite possibilities with introspection, deliberation and thoughtfulness. Engage in some soul-searching, take a good look at your strengths and weaknesses. Know who you are, realize the purpose of your life.

A fulfilling professional life can be found at the intersection of what you love and what you are good at. Finding the right work takes time and effort.

Third, define your success

What does "success" look like? What does "being successful" mean to you? Does success mean accomplishment? Having high position? Making lot of money? Possessing lots of properties? Or does it mean happiness, good health or being satisfied with life?

Every person thinks differently about being successful in life. So there can't exist a definition that is suitable for all. You must define success for yourself, no matter what the world says. "Success is liking who you are, liking what you do, and liking how you do it," said Maya Angelou. "When you have the courage to question what you are doing and, more importantly, why you are doing it, you stay on your edge of innovation, truth and lasting fulfillment" (Adnan, 2015). You never achieve success unless you like what you are doing.

Remember that your work does not equal your worth ? whether you serve as the driver of a public bus or you are the CEO of a global corporation of your own. Worth does not lie in financial value only. "A successful life isn't just about what career path you are on. Success is about becoming the kind of person you want to be" (Courie, 2015).

Do not be afraid of failure, know how to take risk. "A boat is always safe in the harbor, but that's not what boats are built for." You must have the courage to decide for yourself what is right and what is wrong. Remember that it is impossible to live without failing. If you happen to commit mistakes, make amends, get up and move on. Time is limited, do not wait and wait, but take action now.

Fourth, balance your life

Compared to eating, too much consumption of something is not appropriate for one's health. So keep a balance of your life. But remember problems may occur now and then. You have your work life, social life, family life and personal life to handle.

The elements in life that require the most balancing can be divided into two categories: internal (mind, heart, health, feeling) and external (work, social, family, fun). Oftentimes, people focus on either one. Both ends of each spectrum are actually positive, but if either side is taken to an extreme, something that is intended to be positive can end up being detrimental. Therefore, balancing is the process of holding something steady during change.

Fifth, learn to build up relationships.

Trust is the most valuable gift you can render to anyone. We trust people in business, relationship, and life. An essential way to build trust is to stay in touch and to engage with people.

Disagreements and misunderstanding enter any relationship, but don't let such obstacles destroy the trust you have built up. Focus on fixing the problem and forget about fixing the blame.

In global economy, winners are those who know how to build long-term relationships with clients who will give them business and who will recommend them to their friends.

The same goes for life's journey. The more people you know and the smoother your relations with them, the greater your chances of finding true happiness.

Life is not easy. One of the aspects of daily life that is changing rapidly is the way we interact with each other. As communication and information technologies are rapidly advancing, people are accordingly changing their behaviors. Every day, closeness between people become less and less. We travel a lot faster doing business. Our lives depend largely on smartphones, tablets and computers. Immersed in electronic devices, we ignore our environment and people around us. Communication is changing ? basic activities will be conditioned in some way by a virtual intermediary. Our gadgets are getting smarter while we are getting dumber, lazier and more isolated.

Traditional way of communicating and relating to each other is still necessary to bring about good relationships between and among human beings.

Dear Graduates:

After your graduation, do not become the burden on your parents. Make use of your knowledge and capability for your own benefits and for the benefits of humanity. Now you are free to pursue your passion and your dream. Keep pace with the rapid changing world. Grab every opportunity you have so that you will not regret later on that you did not do what you should have done.

If you cannot remember anything about AU, just recall the Uniqueness and Identity statement that AU is an International Catholic University (ICU) – inculcating the three E's with the spirit and atmosphere of love, care, and concern in the process of educating you. As alumni of AU, you become ambassadors of your alma mater. Be good ambassadors through good behavior and conduct.

You had worked long and hard to reach this goal. Be proud and confident of yourselves. May your graduation be the end of your campus life and at the same time usher in the beginning of your future. Do not be drowned in the modern world. Nurture the thirst for knowledge, keep on the spirit of service and discipline so that you remain useful to yourselves and to impact humanity.

Congratulations AU Graduates! I do wish you all the best in life. Do come back to visit us from time to time.

May God shower you all the graces you need to overcome all your problems and difficulties. May He be with you to keep you safe always.

Congratulations once again. May God bless you always!

CLOSING PRAYER

Loving God, bless us as we gather here today to celebrate the accomplishments of these graduates. Thankful for the gifts you have bestowed upon them and the opportunity to share in their lives, we ask you to continue to guide and bless them.

May they be healthy, open-minded persons, enlivened by Christian values, engaged tirelessly in the pursuit of Truth and knowledge, characterized by personal integrity and creative thinking.

May they learn that life is a struggle, but through diligence and hard work, they can overcome all difficulties.

May they be professionally competent, willing to exercise responsible leadership for their own good and the good of humankind.

May they learn to be tolerant towards ways of being, thinking and acting which are different from theirs.

May they learn to respect all creation, and the uniqueness of each person.

May they be light to this world, so that their life radiate your message of compassion, hope, and joy, leading people towards the true source of all knowledge and life.

May they be the salt that prevents the rottenness of hatred and greed from expanding around them, bringing compassionate healing to anguished souls they encounter.

Teach them, Lord, that alone they are insignificant, but with the talents of others, they can build a new world where all can live as true brothers and sisters.

We ask all this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.
