

St. Montfort Award for Illustrious Service

Assistant Professor Dr. Uree Cheasakul

Awarded St. Montfort Award for Illustrious Service

Citation

Dr. Uree Cheasakul has served in Assumption University for two and a half decades. Her journey so far with the University as an educator, teacher, researcher and a leader is remarkable. Joined as a faculty member, worked as a lecturer and her commitment to service and moral principles took her to the chair of the Management Department for many years. Further, her leadership skills and passion for her job led her way to the Associate Dean and then the Dean. She has taken forward Martin De Tour School of Management to heights.

Her determination and hard work is always an inspiration. She sees her role as “walking the path” with her students, always looking for innovative activities to engage them to move forward in their academic life and the real business world. She has distinguished herself in multiple areas of academia; by being a great educator, excellent leader and good researcher with articles published in national and international journals. Perseverance, willingness and positivity are the traits identified in her by others.

Due to her outstanding services and dedication, Assumption University is pleased to award Assistant Professor Dr. Uree Cheasakul St. Montfort Award for Illustrious Service on the auspicious date of December 24, 2018.
