

ABSTRACT

The good payment system is one of the most important systems of the company that will provide good internal control of the company on payment and leak of money. This project is designed to develop the company payment registration system which currently using manual system into computerized system. This will help the company to make correct payment , make the payment to be more standardized and also will give correct information to management. With the user training and knowledge on system so the Payment Registration System will be most effective and beneficial.